

Press Conference
May 31, 2005

1. Banks of the Wabash Festival: We are in our 6th day of festival and are receiving nothing but complements on the paving down the mid-way. Families with strollers and the handicapped are now able to participate in all festival activities. Also the Peter Noone and Herman's Hermits concert was a huge success, Greg Ruark is to be commended on a wonderful evening.
2. Fallen Heroes Day: On June 5th at 2:00 pm there will be a ceremony of respect for Police and Fire fallen heroes. The ceremony will be held at the Police and Fire Museum at 8th and Lockport.
3. Hulman Street: Construction on Hulman Street goes to bid this month with construction to start in July.
4. Martin Luther King: A tentative date of June 16th has been set for the designation of 13th street as the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Way. More information will be forthcoming.
